

This laser cut magazine is assembled in much the same way you built your own magazine in the last project. Identify which cut outs fit into which slots to form the box joints, and test the assembly without glue first. Apply a small amount of glue to all mating surfaces and allow to dry.

The hammer (green) should be attached to the magazine with a small piece of BBQ skewer.